The strategies are developed based on the identified regional drug trafficking threat. Beat bowel cancer Aotearoa is committed to reducing the impact of bowel cancer in New Zealand through awareness, education and support, with the hopes of increasing the survival rate to 75.

Prescription drug addiction in the USA has all but killed the cocaine trade and has ousted marijuana as the gateway drug for teens.